My Dear Marion

I should have answered your letter sooner but I could not settle on any certain date to see you. I have been expecting to see a Sat. ahead for quite a while but not a one has bound up as yet. I can't go for the next two or three Saturdays.

I will find out as soon as possible + let you know about the 20th. I can go the 27th anyway unless some thing unexpected happens. That letter I received to-day was a mighty short one Marion. I see P. N. such an awfully busy place that you can't get time to write more than twenty is not he will certainly be
